LOOK OUT FOR THE SIGNALS.

There are some danger signals that demand the attention of women. Deviation from the regular menstrual habit; monthly pains in the head, back, sides or abdomen; flooding; bearing down pains; constant tired, languid feeling, or a leucorrheeal discharge, or vaginal inflammation, are warnings nature gives to women. Disease usually starts with some one of these symptoms. They show something to be wrong with that delicate feminine organism. It can be corrected easily at the start, but if neglected-put off a few weeks or months-endless suffering will result. Most women know that the best way to stop such troubles is to get Wine of Cardui, that wonderful cure for female diseases, which has attracted so much attention. Wine of Cardui goes to the root of all this trouble, in the afflicted organs themselves. It makes those organs healthy, and gives them
